A vertical photograph showing a weathered wooden post on the left, with a rusty metal chain and hook attached to a stone wall on the right. The chain is made of thick, interlocking links, and the hook is a large, circular metal ring. The stone wall is light-colored and shows signs of age and wear. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the wood, metal, and stone.

1960 yılının 1 Şubat günü İstanbul'da doğdum.

17 yaşına kadar İstanbul Nişantasi'da yaşadım. O yaştan sonra çalışma hayatım başladı. 19 sayının sonlarında Libya gidip yaklaşık iki yıl çalıştım. Oradan sonrada iki yıl Irak...

Döndüğümde yeni bir Türkiye vardı. Evren'in temellerini atıp yumuşattığı küresellesen dünyaya hazırlanan Özal Türkiyesi...

1984 de askere gittim. 1986 da yine sivildim.

Değerlerin kuralların değiştiği yeni Türkiye'de ben olarak yaşamak zordu. Bir sürü farklı konularda çalıştım. 1988 da bilgisayar ile tanıştım. 1990 yılından sonra profesyonel olarak bilgi işlem sektöründeydim. Halen tanışıklığım çalışmalarım yağun bir şekilde sürüyor.

Bir sürü projeye imza attım yada katkıda bulundum. Önceleri fabrika otomasyonu 1994 den sonra internet üzerinde onlarca.

1994 de ailem ile birlikte Avustralya'ya göçmen olarak yerleştik.

Avustralyada'da boş durmadım. Oğün bugün başta dernekler olamak üzere benim dünya görüşüme uygun bulduğuma inandığım bir çok etkinlik ve projede yer aldım.

Politika, fotoğrafçılık, felsefe ve Anadolu uygarlıkları en büyük tutkum, sorumluluğum yada terapim.

Bazı yerlerde yazılarım ve derlemelerim yayınlandı. Halen ayorum.com web sitesinde düzenli olarak yazılarım yayınlanıyor.

I was born in Istanbul on 1st February 1960.

I lived in Nisantasi until I was 19. My work life started with my first job in Libya. After 2 years in Libya, I worked for another two years in Iraq. I found a different Turkey when I came back. It was beaten until soft by Evren and being moulded for the globalised world by Ozal.

I was a conscript between 1984 - 1986. After my military service, I had to adapt to Turkey of changing moral values and principals. I worked in different sectors until I met with computers in 1988.

I've been working in Information Technology since 1990. I scoped and implemented various projects including factory automation, development of retail applications and websites for companies, organisations and artists.

I migrated to Australia in 1994 with my family and been living in Melbourne since then.

I've been actively involved with the community organisations where I support their political views and objectives, and been assisting them in various functions and events.

Photography, philosophy and ancient Anatolian history are my passions. I've been contributing to different publications with my articles.

I'm a regular contributor to www.ayorum.com news and commentary website.
